

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Courtney M. Coffman, Development Officer
610.469.9236 x132 ccoffman@beaverrun.org fax 610.469.9758

An evening of flapper fun and an afternoon of roaring great tennis

GLENMOORE, PA – May 1, 2009 Camphill Special School and Tennis Addiction Sports Club will host the 2009 Camphill Roaring Twenties ProAm Tennis Ball and Tennis Tournament on May 8 and 9, respectively, benefiting the students with intellectual and developmental disabilities at Camphill Special School.

The Tennis Ball, featuring emcee Robin Young, host of NPR's Here and Now will take place on Friday, May 8 at Chester Valley Golf Club in Malvern. Guests at the Tennis Ball will be treated to a fabulous dinner, roaring twenties themed cocktails, dancing to The Chatterband, auctions, and a performance by Camphill Special School students. Eight mixed doubles ProAm tennis teams dressed in their tennis whites will compete for the coveted title of ProAm Champions the following day, Saturday, May 9, at Valley Creek Park in Malvern. Local television personality Elizabeth "Bitsy" Jennings will serve as commentator for this high-energy sporting event.

Tickets are $125 each or $200 per couple and includes admission to both the Tennis Ball on May 8 and ProAm Tennis Tournament on May 9. Contact Courtney Coffman at 610.469.9236 x132 or ccoffman@beaverrun.org for more information.

Camphill Special School is a community and school for children and youth ages four to twenty-one with intellectual and developmental disabilities. For additional information on Camphill Special School or the 2009 Camphill ProAm visit www.camphillspecialschool.org or call 610.469.9236 x132.

###

High resolution photos available upon request.