Camphill Special School elects new board member and president

GLENMOORE, PA – May 14, 2010

Camphill Special School in Glenmoore announces the election of board member Warren R. Gleicher, Esq. of Livingston, New Jersey as president of its board of directors and the election of Gregory Ambrose of Pottstown, Pennsylvania as a member-at-large.

Gleicher previously served as the vice-president of the board and has served on the school's Parent Campaign and Development Committees. He also is a New York chair of Camphill Special School's current capital campaign. As a partner at Olshan Grundman Frome Rosenzweig & Wolosky LLP in New York City, Gleicher has over twenty-five years' experience in income and estate taxation and was selected as a Super Lawyer by Law and Politics Magazine in 2007.

Ambrose is a Project Administrator at The Vanguard Group in Malvern, PA. He is a member of Camphill Special School's strategic planning committee and has served as a co-chair of the school's annual signature fundraising event, the Camphill ProAm, for the past two years.

Camphill Special School, established in 1963, is a private residential and day school for children and youth with intellectual and developmental disabilities. The school is accredited by the Association of Waldorf Schools of North America and the Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools Commissions on Elementary and Secondary Schools, as well as licensed by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania as an Approved Private School.
