

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Contact: Carol M. Goetz, Associate Director of Development
610.469.9236 x131 cgoetz@camphillspecialschool.org
(Fax) 610.469.9758

Camphill Special School names new board president and new members

GLENMOORE, PA – December 15, 2011

Camphill Special School in Glenmoore, PA announces the election of board member Gregory Ambrose of Pottstown, PA as president of its board of directors. Ambrose is a Project Administrator at The Vanguard Group in Malvern, PA, a member of the School's strategic planning committee, and served as a co-chair of the school's annual signature fundraising event, the Camphill ProAm, for two years.

Elected as new members of the board of directors are Sonja Adams and Sarah Schreck of Glenmoore, PA, Lynn Garner of Chester Springs, PA, and Amy McHugh of Downingtown, PA. Adams is a certified curative educator and Waldorf teacher who serves as Faculty Chair and Program Director of the Curative Education Program of the Camphill School of Curative Education and Social Therapy. Garner is Director of Talent and Leadership Development at ULTA Salon, Cosmetics & Fragrance, Inc.

McHugh is a licensed PA Realtor, owner of McHugh Group, Inc., and current co-chair of the Camphill ProAm. Schreck leads the residential program at Camphill Special School and is a prevocational instructor as well.

Camphill Special School, established in 1963, is a licensed Approved Private School that offers residential and day school for children and youth with intellectual and developmental disabilities. The school is accredited by the Association of Waldorf Schools of North America and the Middle States Association of Colleges and Schools Commissions on Elementary and Secondary Schools.

#